Présentation de l'éditeur

Premier opus d'une trilogie qui entend retracer l'histoire de la galerie romaine d'Alexandra Mazzanti. Depuis sa création en 2007, elle défend des artistes du mouvement « pop surréaliste » : Nicoletta Ceccoli, Benjamin Lacombe, Naoto Hattori, Joe Sorren. Biographie de l'auteur

Dorothy Circus Gallery is a space dedicated to Pop Surrealism and new trends in the visual arts. Inaugurated in Rome in 2007, the gallery was born on the border between New York and the Wonderland of Alice, and has the merit of having led for the first time on the Italian scenes artists such as Jonathan Viener, Ron English, Sas and Colin Christian, Camille Rose Garcia, Alex Gross, Joe Sorren, Tara McPherson, James Jean, Travis Louie and many others. Dorothy Circus Gallery, selected by Juxtapoz magazine as one of the top 100 world s galleries is now a leading European cen-tre for pop surrealism. The Gallery and its Artists are often re-viewed by major newspapers and television channels and have numerous collaborations with the most renowned international galleries and institutions. Thanks to its international fame and esteem, Dorothy Circus Gallery is not only committed to bringing Italy the most famous artists from the international pop surrealism scene, but is also in search for new Italian, European and Eastern talents. Dorothy Circus Gallery publishes many catalogues of its shows. Some of them edited by Drago Publishing and distributed all over the world. Here at Dorothy Circus Gallery, our goal is to display the forerunners of the new Agurative avant guard language. This movement is kinetic and sustained by our artists style which strengthens the collective life of the gallery.
